Super Paradise Beach on Mykonos

MYKONOS The new big thing

Villas to die for Aphrodite, left, a gorgeous Cycladic house nestling on the Aegean. Sculptures, an infinity pool and a sexy spiral staircase supply its swagger. With cook and chauffeur, all you have to worry about is your tan. (Visit mykonosvillas.com.) The mysteriously named 11K would be James Bond's choice. This super-chic three-level villa oozes style and is perfect for predatory blondes. Grab a martini and party. (Visit fivestargreece.com.)

Bikini-watching For nubile beauties head to Paraga beach and sink some Mai Tais. For a lobster lunch camp down at N'Ammos on Psarou beach. Kim Hershov and Brooke De Ocampo hang out at the nearby Mykonos Blu. Those in the know head to Panormos. Madonna might swing by on her yacht.

The dinner tables Hang out with the likes of Calista Flockhart at Nobu at the Belvedere Hotel – just as hot as in London. At the Sea Satin, under the windmill in Matoyannia Street, the owner, Mimis, plays kitsch love songs.

The look Hermès summer pants, Galliano tops and headscarves.

Get your wedges to... Caprice in Little Venice for Piña Colodas and the sunset. Then line up the Kamikaze shots at Astra. Later, rub shoulders with the likes of Claudia Schiffer at Remezzo. House-music fans should head to Space Dance. Those pushing on through should move to clifftop club Cavo Paradiso.

Most-coveted invite Tina Daskalantonaki's heaving annual party.
